VIEWS

Which the President Holds

On the Tariff

Will Soon be Given to the Public.

The Next Regular Session of Congress Will Get the Dose

Which Roosevelt is Now Preparing Upon the Subject of Tariff Revision From Recent Talk About Henderson.

Washington, Sept. 20.—A statement is published here that President Roosevelt has an important announcement to make to the American people. It is said to be nothing less than a declaration that the Republican party is prepared to satisfy public demand in case this demand continues, by taking up the tariff and readjusting it at the first regular session of the congress which is to be elected next November. It is to secure the approval of the party leaders for this program that the president asked a half dozen leading senators to meet him in conference at his summer home. He secured their aproval. It was unanimously agreed that no effort shall be made to revise the tariff at the short congressional session next winter. All present at the conference declared this would be impossible. Efforts will be made to discourage immediate agitation of the subject. But to satisfy public opinion and forestall the Democratic party, so the story runs, the people are to be promised that if the demand for a readjustment of the tariff continues the Republican party will respond thereto at an early day.

Tom Reed on Henderson.

Washington, Sept. 20.—Ex-Speaker Thomas B. Reed, in an interview on the withdrawal from congress of Speaker Henderson of Iowa, said that he saw no reason why General Henderson's statement of the reason for his withdrawal should not be accepted as correct without searching for ulterior reasons. The ex-speaker said: "I don't see why, when a man in the political world assigns a good reason for sudden action on his part, if it be precipitate, he can not be believed." Mr. Reed said he was opposed to tariff revision. When asked what, in his opinion, would be the effect of Speaker Henderson's attitude on the Republican party, he said: "Well, you know I am out of politics, and I look to others for political forecasts, but I might say that some time a great conflagration may be started by a very little match."

Speaker Henderson's Successor.

Dubuque, Ia., Sept. 20.—More than a score of candidates are being urged for the Republican nomination for congress, declined by Speaker Henderson. The speaker set forth during the day that he would not attempt to dictate the nomination. He said: "I want my district to be absolutely free from any influence of mine in the selection of my successor. I have not an enemy in the field." The speaker will leave Dubuque in a day or two to join his wife and daughter at Atlantic City.

Ten Thousand Hear Bryan.

Cairo, Ills., Sept. 20.—Fully 10,000 people heard Hon. William J. Bryan speak at Dexter, Mo. It was Mr. Bryan's first speech in southeast Missouri, and people from all sections flocked in to hear him.

Tammany's New Leader.

New York, Sept. 20.—Charles F. Murphy has been elected leader of Tammany Hall by a vote of 28 to 8.

ANNIVERSARY

Of Massacre of Paoli was Observed Today.

West Chester, Pa., Sept. 20.—The one hundred and twenty-fifth anniversary of the massacre of Paoli was celebrated today with interesting patriotic addresses and other exercises. The exercises were held on the site of the massacre, near Malvern, where stands a monument commemorating the event, which nearly resulted in the total destruction of Anthony Wayne's army by a force of British and Indians on the night of September 20, 1777.

VESSEL IS LAUNCHED.

The Des Moines Glides Out Majestically Over the Atlantic Waters, Amid the Cheers of Thousands.

Boston, Mass., Sept. 20.—There was launched from the ways at the big plant of the Fore River Ship and Engine company at Quincy today, the largest war vessel built in Massachusetts since the early days of the American navy—the steel cruiser Des Moines, a sister ship to the Denver. The launching was in many respects the most notable that has ever taken place in this vicinity; it was, moreover, one of the most beautiful and imposing. There was something curiously inspiring in the scene—the mass of molded metal rushing headlong down the greased ways, the fluttering of thousands of handkerchiefs and the cheers from thousands of throats, the music, the ceremony.

The available space about the ways was packed with enthusiastic humanity. Work was suspended in the yard, and thousands of brawny workmen mingled with the great crowd. On the christening stand was a distinguished party from Iowa, including Gov. A. B. Cummins and his staff, other state officials and representative citizens of Des Moines. The national capitol was represented by high officials of the navy department.

It was shortly after twelve o'clock when Miss Clara N. Carleton, of Haverhill, severed the cord and the big ship started on its journey down the ways. It was an instant after the ship began to move that Miss Elsie McComber, of Des Moines flung the christening bottle against the vessel's shapely prow. In less than it takes to tell it, the ship was riding gracefully on the bosom of the river. As she was swung around and anchored in full view of the assembled crowds, a mighty cheer went up from thousands of throats and simultaneously there was a deafening roar from the whistles of tugs and other craft in the vicinity.

The main battery of the Des Moines will consists of ten five-inch fifty-calibre breech loading, rapid-fire guns. The secondary battery will comprise eight six-pounders, rapid-fire guns, two one-pounder rapid-fire guns, and four automatic Colt's machine guns. Corn pith with an estimated capacity of 5,730 cubic feet will be used as an obturating material for the water line protection, so that if the hull should be pierced by a shot, the swelling of the corn pith placed between the outer and inner plates will prevent the ingress of the water.

The building of the Des Moines was authorized by an act of Congress, March 3, 1899, and on August 28, 1900, the keel was laid in the Fore River yards, the newest ship yard in the country, where also the largest seven-masted schooner in the world was recently launched. According to contract, the Des Moines will be ready for delivery to the government June 14, 1903 and will cost $1,065,000.

BUSY THEODORE IS TO VISIT DETROIT.

Republican Railroads Do What They Can to Help Matters.

Detroit, Mich., Sept. 20.—The downtown streets, public buildings, hotels and business houses are blossoming out in a gaudy rainbow of color in anticipation of the coming of the President. The Presidential party is scheduled to arrive in Detroit tomorrow morning and will remain here until Monday afternoon. The President will be given an opportunity to review the parade of Spanish war veterans and has promised to address the convention. The railroads entering Detroit have made reduced rates for the occasion and an enormous crowd promises to be on hand from all parts of Michigan and adjoining states.

THE FATAL STAMPEDE

Was More Terrible Than at First Reported, as Death List Has Reached Close Onto One Hundred.

Birmingham, Ala., Sept. 20.—Of those killed in last night's tampede of the Shiloh negro Baptist church, while Brooker Washington was addressing the National Baptist convention, only about forty bodies have been identified. Almost all the identified dead are local residents, while those not yet claimed are strangers and came here from various parts of the United States as delegates to the convention. Immense crowds surround the undertaking shops in an endeavor to identify the unknown dead. Intense indignation is shown by delegates to the convention against the negro who started the fight in the gallery, which led to the excitement afterward resulting in the panic and steps may be taken to prosecute him. Reports from the hospitals this morning say that about a dozen of the injured will die. It is impossible to ascertain just how many were injured, as many were taken to private homes, because of lack of accomodations at hospitals. Early this morning the death list stands at eighty.

DEATH LIST

Grows Larger and Is Now Placed at One Hundred.

At 10:30 o'clock, reports from the hospitals show that ten persons injured in last night's panic, have died during the night and early morning. The bodies of several of the dead have also been found at homes in the neighborhood of the scene of the disaster. This runs the total number of dead close to 100, as 78 bodies were taken to the undertaking shops during the night. An investigation shows that no white persons were killed, but several who had gone to hear Booker Washigton speak, were injured.

Talk of Buying Votes in Support of the Bill, Freely Heard.

Senator Foraker's Son is One of the Lobbyists in Columbus During the Special Session.

Columbus, Sept. 20.—The Democratic state executive committee is now ready to make assignments of speakers for the campaign. The committee was unanimous in reaching the decision that none except Ohio speakers would be invited to take part in the campaign under its auspices, since the issues to be presented are for the most part state issues. Some foreign orators may come into the state under the direction of the Democratic national congressional committee, but their number will be few. The state committee has invited about thirty Ohio Democrats to place themselves at its disposal for campaign purposes, and the list may be slightly extended if the demand for oratory exceeds the supply. The matter of the place and time of meetings will be left to the Democratic authorities of the several counties, who are expected to make their wants known at state headquarters. The state committee will not map out any routes for speakers except as suggested by county committees. The speakers' bureau will not have an official head, at least for the present, but its work will be entrusted to executive clerk, C. S. Magruder, acting in consultation with Chairman Garber and Secretary Sandles. The state committee has determined not to give out the names of available speakers until their acceptances have been received, but it is understood that the following are among the number: Colonel James Kilbourne, late Democratic candidate for governor, Hon. William J. Frey, of Findlay, Hon. John L. Zimmerman, of Springfield, Hon. John J. Lentz, of Columbus, General Isaac R. Sherwood, of Toledo, Hon. James A. Rice, of Canton, Hon. M. A. Daugherty, of Lancaster, Webster P. Huntington, of Columbus, Senator J. C. Royer, of Tiffin, Rerpresentative C. L. Brumbaugh, of Greenville, Hon. Charles W. Baker, of Cincinnati, Hon. Thomas E. Powell, of Columbus, General E. B. Finley, of Bucyrus, Congressman James A. Norton, of Tiffin, Hon. A. W. Patrick, of New Philadelphia, and Hon. John C. Welty, of Canton. It is possible that ex-Governor James E. Campbell, of New York, may make a few speeches during the campaign. The complete list of available oratorical material will be announced within the next few days.

The state committee is in receipt of remarkably favorable reports from the campaign tours of Mayor Johnson and Rev. Herbert S. Bigelow. Both the Cleveland mayor and the Democratic candidate for secretary of state have been everywhere received with enthusiasm, and a significant feature of their meetings is revealed in the official reports, uniform wherever they have appeared, that Republicans have been strongly in evidence among their audiences. Both have received many pledges of Republican support from those who differ from them on national questions but are in thorough accord with the Democratic party this year on state issues. The two leaders will cover the state thoroughly before election day and the returns from the localities they have visited, according to all present indications, will show heavy Democratic gains.

The members of the general assembly—or a large majority of them—are in Cincinnati today, ostensibly for the purpose of viewing the beauties of the fall carnival, but primarily in order to promote the designs of the Cincinnati Traction company on a perpetual franchise or at least on a revival of the 50-year franchise granted by the Rogers act, which was declared unconstitutional by the supreme court of Cincinnati. An army of Republican lobbyists swooped down on Columbus this week. Members are being coached and there is no lack of funds to accomplish this coaching. The lobbyists are divided into groups, some of whom are working those who need argument, while still another set is "dealing direct" with the men who have the votes. The Cincinnati junket is incharge of Benson Foraker, son of the senator, and vice president of the Cincinnati street railroad, and the chief lobbyist for the passage of the "curative" section. To emphasize the work of the lobby here it was proposed to take the legislators to Cincinnati and turn them over to the good graces of the local traction company hustlers.

There are two "curative" sections proposed for the Roger's law, one by Williams, of Hamilton, which without attempting to legalize the Cincinnati franchise, prohibits any court from considering its legality. The other is a proposed section presented to the senate by Hosea, of Cincinnati, and declares the illegal 50-year franchise shall be legal despite the recent decision of the courts. Both these sections have been approved by the attorneys for the company.

Already the talk of buying votes is heard on all sides, and the Cincinnati trip is expected to develop some sensational features. The lawmakers may not know it, but the Cincinnati hosts are more anxious to quietly leave a favorable street railway impression than they are to have them view the greatness of Cincinnati as exhibited in the fall festival.

* * *

The situation with reference to municipal legislation is as far from satisfactory from the standpoint of the general welfare and as embarrassing to the Republican majority as it has been at any time since the extra session began. The Nash code has been knocked around and jumped on until it is utterly unrecognizable as the measure originally introduced. Strange to say, however, the instrument now under consideration still bears the governor's name, although it is not much nearer a "Nash Code" than the Fork code or the Guerin code. The chances are that it will be still further emasculated, but that whatever measure is enacted will be dignified by the governor's name. Meanwhile the end of the session, already prolonged far beyond the expectation of the Republican bosses, is not yet in sight. It is about settled that the statesmen will tackle the franchise question, and the school question and a new primary election law are subjects that may require and should require adequate attention. The most sanguine Republican leaders hope to adjourn the session about October 10, but the majority regard October 17 as a more probable date. It is by no means certain, however, that either will be possible. As the election approaches the Republican members are fretting under the strain, but as long as they cannot agree among themselves and cannot reconcile the Democratic minority to their plans, there is little prospect of an early end of their troubles.

DRUNKEN ITALIANS

Start a Fight and Before it Ends, Three are Dead and One Fatally Wounded. Shooting at Close Range.

Berrysburg, W. Va., Sept. 20—Three Italians were killed and one fatally injured in a fight in a "speak easy," here last night. All were miners working for the Southern Coal and Transportation Co. The cause of the fight cannot be ascertained. A dozen men were drinking freely and had reached the fighting stage, when one talking excitedly in Italian, struck another. Instantly the entire number were on their feet, and a riot started. Knives were brandished, revolvers fired at close range and murder was done.

WORLD'S FINISH WAS TO HAVE COME TODAY

Had the Thrice Repeated Dream of Miss Campbell Come True.

Aberdeen, O., Sept. 20.—Having failed to receive any manifestations up to noon today that the account of this wicked world was to come up for final settlement, Miss Nettie Campbell, of this place has had her faith in dreams rudely shattered, though the shattering process did not jar her nearly so much as would have been the case had her dreams come true. On Friday night, January 3, Miss Campbell dreamed that the world would be entirely consumed by fire today. Miss Campbell at that time did not think much of the dream, but when she dreamed the same thing over again on the succeeding Saturday, Sunday and Monday nights, the repetition caused no little comment, and the passing of the day without fire catastrophe resulted in a feeling of relief in some circles and particularly among the colored population.

HELD THE MOB AT BAY

Plucky Deputy, With Revolver, Takes a Determined Stand Until Troops Arrive to Relieve Him.

Tampa, Pa., Sept. 20.—Early this morning strikers were out at Lansford lying in wait for non-strikers and deputies. A small sized riot was going on when the governor's troops arrived and dispersed the mob. Archie McMichael, a deputy, was intercepted. The crowd importuned him to turn back, but he refused. When they turned on him and pelted him with rocks, McMichael whipped out his revolver and fired but hit no one. He stood his ground and cautioned them that the first man who raised his hand he would shoot down. McMichael remained defiantly in front of the strikers until troops arrived.

The President Continues His Electioneering Trip, and will Pass Through the State Enroute to Detroit.

Cincinnati, Sept. 20.—The train bearing President Roosevelt and party rolled into the Union station here at 10 a. m., a great crowd being present to greet it. Elaborate arrangements had been made for the reception of the distinguished visitors and they were accorded a most enthusiastic welcome. The president was met at the depot by Mayor Fleischmann, Frank W. Foulds, president of the Cincinnati Fall Festival association, and a large reception committee, and escorted to the St. Nicholas hotel. The streets traversed were packed with cheering multitudes. During the forenoon the president held a reception at the hotel. After luncheon, the party was escorted to the exposition grounds by a large military parade, with a civic division consisting of members of the chamber of commerce, Business Men's club and other organizations of the city. The president and his party will be banqueted at 6 p. m. at the St. Nicholas. At this banquet Senator Foraker and most of the Ohio congressmen, Governor Nash, Mayor Fleischman, President Frank W. Foulds and many prominent citizens will be present. About 400 plates will be turned and the appointments will be as elaborate as can be made. The president made an address at Music hall, while being escorted through the fall festival. He will be escorted to the exposition in the evening with another demonstration, illuminated with fireworks along the entire line of march. By a proclamation of Mayor Fleischmann business was entirely suspended in shops and stores at noon, and both the afternoon and evening will be entirely given up to the demonstrations in honor of the president. At midnight the presidential party leaves for Detroit.

CREWS

On Railroads Refuse to Handle

Non Union Coal

From the Colliery at North Mahanoy.

The State Troops were Called to the Scene of the Trouble

And by Hauling an Entire Company of Soldiers the Trains Finally were Pulled Out.

Shenandoah, Pa., Sept. 20.—Three train crews refused to handle non-union coal from the Philadelphia and Reading company's North Mahanoy colliery. Several hundred strikers were assembled near the colliery when the locomotives arrived to take away the coal cars, and the strike leaders appealed to the railroad men to refuse to haul the coal. The sheriff explained the situation by telephone to General Gobin, in command of the state troops here, and the general ordered the Eighth regiment to the scene at once. By the time the soldiers had reached the scene two other locomotives and crews had arrived from Gordon. One company of the regiment was ordered to mount the cars, and, with other soldiers guarding the track for over a mile, the train proceeded.

The Young People's Society with Dr Hirett at the helm is doing the ... work in its history and but recently gladdened the heart of their pastor by presenting him a handsome secretary.

Impaired Digestion

May not be all that is meant by dyspepsia now, but it will be if neglected.

The uneasiness after eating, fits of nervous headache, sourness of the stomach, and disagreeable belching may not be very bad now, but they will be if the stomach is suffered to grow weaker.

Dyspepsia is such a miserable disease that the tendency to it should be given early attention. This is completely overcome by which strengthens the whole digestive system.

Hood's Sarsaparilla

A Remarkable Record

Chamberlain's Cough Remedy has a remarkable record. It has been in use for over thirty years during which time many million bottles have been sold and used. It has long been the standard and main reliance in the treatment of croup in thousands of homes yet during all this time no case has ever been reported to the manufacturers in which it failed to effect a cure. When given as soon as the child becomes hoarse or even as soon as the croupy cough appears it will prevent the attack. It is pleasant to take many children like it. It contains no opium or other harmful substances and may be given as confidently to a baby as to an adult. For sale by Wm M Melville old postoffice corner

KENTUCKY OIL NEWS.

WORK IN TENNESSEE.

What Col. Stubbe Has Done Toward the Development of the Field.

Operators Should Not be Surprised at the Peculiar Antics of Wells in that Territory for Freaks are Often Encountered.

The Kentucky and Tennessee Oil and Mining company has five wells on the C D Dalton farm (Sunnybook field) which are supposed to be settled producers and which are yielding an estimated output of 75 bbls per day. These have been generally referred to as the Strubbe wells from the fact that Colonel Strubbe of Sunnybook, has had charge of the company's operations and is generally credited with being one of the pioneers in the field

The first well drilled by Colonel Strubbe was sunk to a depth of 920 feet and was regarded as a really and truly gusher. It is reported to have started with an enormous production but was in the freak class and ere long had apparently gone dry as the veriest duster. This has been one of the perplexing questions in this field—wells come in with a big output at the start and suddenly cease entirely. They are just as likely to start again at unexpected times but the fact that they stop producing has been one of the drawbacks and has given rise to endless discussion though nobody has proposed a satisfactory explanation and it is yet to be recorded that any of the geological experts has given an opinion which might lead to avoidance of the trouble

Was a Paying Well

When the Strubbe No 1 stopped producing there was just as sudden a revulsion of feeling as had been occasioned by its completion after being allowed to stand for some time the well was again put into operation and is said to have pumped 30 to 40 bbls a day for quite a while. It is now in the list of has beens

The Geary Oil company a corporation in which some of the Somerset company people are interested has a well which is giving an aggregate total production of probably 170 barrel when properly pumped. Three of the wells are making what production is being secured one going into the duster class

An account of the work done on these wells will serve as a further guide to what may be expected in this field. The first well was completed on September ... and was very ... afterward ... to about ... barrels when ... The depth was ... feet to sand and about 20 feet into the sand. No water was encountered at this well

No 2 was drilled about 1 000 feet but had no oil and may be classed as a duster. Some little showing of the oleaginous stuff was claimed but never enough to warrant an expenditure on glycerine. The owners say they may try a shot and see what may be done with it

Two Deeper Wells

No 3 well was on a somewhat higher surface plane and its total depth is recorded as 1006 feet. This well is claimed to have done 75 barrels at the start and may be called good for 15 barrels now

No 4 was drilled the deepest of any well on this tract going down to 1117 feet and was 34 feet in the sand. It started off at less than 100 barrels but is now claimed to be doing considerably over that amount. The formation encountered here was looser and somewhat darker than in the previous wells

The above includes the general outline of producing wells in the Sunnybrook field. A number of others have been drilled but without successful results and numerous tests in various sections were dry or not large enough producers to warrant the extension of a pipe line. No 5 is now being drilled by the Geary Oil Company and is located on the Lizzie Lester farm where all their work has been done

From the above it will be seen that the Sunnybrook field is producing a total of 265 to 300 barrels per day which does not include the Somerset No 10. With this well in proper shape the field may be conservatively credited with 500 barrels per day

How it is Reached

The Sunnybrook field is reached best from Monticello and is in a very rough country. Taking the Queen & Crescent route to Burnside, it is then necessary to travel 20 miles by stage or private conveyance to Monticello which route is over a comparatively good pike. Then from Monticello it is a long hard drive over what is hardly better than a mountain trail to Sunnybrook the majority of travelers making the journey on horseback. One road into the field takes the traveler by way of the old Slickford pool. It is thus a difficult task to get the drilling outfit to the field and where the conveyance is included in a drilling fancy prices are exacted. Supply stores are located at Burnside and Monticello whence most of the outfits are carried. Accommodation are not of the best but the mountaineers are usually very hospitable and there isn't much wild west show business to be feared by the northerner

The mountaineers have their customs and as a rule are ready to enforce them with cold lead but they are not always looking for trouble as is sometimes imagined

HAPPILY SURPRISED.

A CLEVELAND GIRL'S UNEXPECTED GOOD FORTUNE

How She was Made Happy After Weeks During Which Her Life Was Despaired of

"I had lost hope and so had my family," said Miss Flora Hamm of No ... Euclid avenue Cleveland Ohio

"Two years ago ... I suffered from a ... attack of typhoid fever. For three weeks my life ... despaired of and finally when the fever left me I was ... the ... I could not ... a chair ... the ravages of the ... a physical wreck. My blood was impoverished and I looked like a corpse. I had not the slightest inclination for food in fact the thought of eating filled me with disgust. I was listless and tired. The tonics prescribed by my physician did not strengthen me

I had often heard of Dr Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People and concluded I would give them a trial. At first the pills did not seem to do me much good and I became discouraged but determined to persevere thinking if they did not do me any good they would not do me any harm. But I was happily surprised as I had scarcely finished taking the first box when I began to improve. I continued until I had taken five boxes. My strength gradually came back and my appetite returned and I was a well girl again. I am positive that it was Dr Williams' Pink Pills which effected my complete restoration to health. I have recommended them to my friends and those who gave them a fair trial have always been satisfied with results. A persistent use of this remedy will ensure a good complexion bright eyes and red lips. I know this from experience"

Dr Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People are sold by all dealers or will be sent postpaid on receipt of price fifty cents a box or six boxes for two dollars and a half by addressing Dr Williams Medicine Co Schenectady New York

Excellent Chance to Win

Big Cash Prize.

All Anxiously Awaiting Results

Which May Bring a Portion of Five Thousand Dollars.

South Side Residents Get Into Various Kinds of Trouble—Other News From Across the Ottawa River.

John Mack, captain of the south side fire department, with a party of friends, formed a pool to compete in the guessing contest being conducted by the National Tribune of Washington, D. C. The scheme is to guess the nearest exact amount of money received at the United States treasury upon a certain date. The amount upon the stated day in the last contest, was $2,360,305.2. Mr. Mack, with his friends, guessed $2,360,575, thus coming within about two hundred dollars of the exact amount. The prize winners will be announced next week. The gentlemen believe they are among the best winners. At all events, their guess is sufficiently close to entitle them to some of the smaller prizes, if not a participation in the five thousand dollar one. They will anxiously await the announcement of the successful competitors. This is the same scheme by which Miss Maude Miller of south Metcalf street, recently won a five thousand dollar prize.

After the Money.

It develops that many persons in south Lima are striving to secure the prizes offered by the National Tribune, which is conducting a guessing contest. The scheme is to guess the nearest exact amount of receipts at the national treasury upon a certain day. Numerous clubs have been organized in this locality to pool guesses. The Refinery club is among the close competitors, their guess being within eighty-five of the exact amount, as announced. It appears as though some of the big prizes will be paid to local persons.

Important Services.

Church Entertainment.

The Young Men's Guild, of Grace M. E. church gave an entertainment at the church last night. Attendance was large. It was a financial as well as a literary success. Proceeds for the benefit of the church.

Pleasant Party.

Miss Pearl McGreery, of St. Johns avenue, entertained a number of friends at her home last night. Usual party pleasantries were enjoyed until a late hour.

Miss Edna Masey, of St. Johns avenue, also entertained a crowd of young friends in a delightful manner yesterday evening. A taffy pulling was an amusing feature. Refreshments were served.

A Happy Evening.

At her home on Second street, last night, Miss Mary Reeder, elegantly entertained a few invited guests. The time was occupied with various enjoyable features. During the evening, Miss Reeder, who is a graduate of the musical department of the Ohio Normal university, favored her guests with a brief, but excellent musical program, her piano selections being especially meritorious. Delectable refreshments were served. All present appreciated the gracious hospitality of the hostess.

Something Doing.

J. F. Hawkins, of Madison avenue, and Frank Geach, were before the 'Squire, yesterday upon a charge preferred by the humane society for alleged cruelty. The former, for alleged mistreatment of his twelve-year-old child, the latter for cruelty to animals. Both plead guilty, receiving substantial pinprices.

William Green and wife, of south Main street, went before the mayor with family troubles which were adjusted, all parties interested being dismissed. Mrs. Green alleged her husband menaced her with a knife. Green averred a friend he had brought with him from Marion, upon a visit was making himself entirely too friendly about the house.

Returned From Zion.

Perry Medsker, who has been employed at Zion City, Chicago, the past few months, is home. He relates many interesting instances of affairs in Zion. He says Elder Moot, formerly in charge of the tabernacle in south Lima, is employed as a carpenter there. Mr. Medsker says people are leaving Zion City on account of a misunderstanding about the truths claimed by Dr. Dowie. Dissatisfaction is becoming general. Dowie receives the first five per cent of all profits on investments. Nearly all citizens of Zion City are interested in the lace factory. Mr. Medsker expressed his opinion that complications daily arising will terminate in the appointment of a receiver for the entire institution. He says Dowie has a remarkable control over his people. D. A. Drake, who has also been in Zion for some time, has returned to south Lima. He will build a residence on south Elizabeth street, where he will reside in the future. A. B. Nungester, of south Main street, recently returned.

Tidings of People.

Mrs. Elizabeth Ford, of Mitchell, South Dakota, is the guest of her sister, Mrs. Louis Vermillion, on south Elizabeth street.

Edward Crossley, of south Main street, who with his wife, has been recreating for some time at Russel's Point, returned home last night. They were accompanied by James Crumrine and Miss Margaret Crumrine.

Charles Neff, formerly of south Elizabeth street, has removed with his family to Dayton, where he is employed.

Howard Ruble is home from a protracted stay in Michigan, for the benefit of his health.

A. N. Simond, of west Vine street, accompanied by his wife, has gone to Cleveland to visit. Before returning they will also visit Pittsburg and Norfolk.

Mrs. C. Wain, of Union City, Pa., is being entertained by Mrs. Stranahan, of south West street.

Owes His Life to a Neighbor's Kindness.

Mr. D. P. Daugherty, well known throughout Mercer and Sumner counties, W. Va., most likely owes his life to the kindness of a neighbor. He was almost hopelessly afflicted with diarrhoea; was attended by two physicians who gave him little, if any, relief, when a neighbor learning of his serious condition, brought him a bottle of Chamberlain's Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy, which cured him in less than twenty-four hours. For sale by Wm. M. Melville, old postoffice corner.

WAGES AND PROSPERITY.

The truest possible test of prosperity is in the market demand for the commodities of life.

When the people buy, they must have much money; when they buy heavily they must have much money.

The working people of this country are not only the backbone of production; they are also the heart and soul of the market.

It is their day-to-day expenses that make up the mighty tide of trade that floats all commerce.

It is their needs for food, for clothing and for shelter that make the wheels of industry hum.

Last week, the industrial activity was reported by the commercial agencies to have been greater than at any other recent time. This was in spite of the coal strike, with the consequent loss of wages and embarrassment to general business.

"Despite the rapid development of transportation facilities," says the Dun report, "the nation's needs have grown still faster, and the situation is distressing for shippers and consumers. Many new factories and mills have been added to the productive capacity, facilities are being increased at old plants and idle shops have resumed."

This means that the working people of this country have money to spend.

There is no getting around that solid proposition.

Blood does not come out of turnips.

Profits cannot be wrung out of a people that have no money.

It may be said that the wages of labor are not in proportion to the profits of employers. It may be so.

But to say that business can be brisk and increasing, without conceding that the great volume of the money involved passes through the hands of the wage-earners, and that the great volume of the commodities produced are consumed by wage-earners, is to state an absurdity.

Labor may not be getting all that is due to it, but there is no denying that it is getting enough to create the greatest demand for the commodities of life that has been known in recent years.—Cleveland Press.

The Farmer's Success Depends Upon Freedom from Disease and Suffering.

Paine's Celery Compound

Is the Medicine That Has Made Thousands of Country Tellers Well and Strong.

There are thousands of farmers in our land who are rich in broad acres and gold, yet lack that true wealth known as good health.

It is a melancholy fact that men and women in the country districts, breathing the purest air and drinking from God's bubbling fountains and limpid springs, are liable to the same diseases and ailments that come thick and fast to city people. We find rheumatism, neuralgia, debility, dyspepsia, kindney and liver troubles, and blood diseases almost as common in the farmer's family as they are in city homes.

Paine's Celery Compound, Heaven's best blessing to the farming community, has done more for the banishment of dread disease and the building up of health than all other combined medicines. Mr. John Zuspan, a prominent and well known farmer of Middleport, Ohio, writes specially for the benefit of sufferers in the rural districts; he says:—

"Last November I was so badly crippled up with rheumatism which came on in June that I could hardly walk without the aid of crutches or a heavy stick. About the tenth of November I commenced taking Paine's Celery Compound, and after using four bottles I was completely cured, and was able to attend to my usual work as well as when I was forty. I am now sixty-six and can walk and run as well as a man of thirty."

WILL

Was Destroyed by the Son

Is the Nature

Of the Evidence Offered in Wheeler Case.

Other Witnesses Testifying that Mr. Wheeler Spoke of Making a Will

In Which His Wife was to Receive All of the Property—Judge Miller Has the Case Under Advisement.

Probate Judge Miller has taken the Wheeler will case under advisement and will reserve his decision until after he has had an opportunity to look over the case from both sides which will be submitted by briefs

There was a rather startling disclosure during the proceedings late yesterday afternoon when Dr Yakey who had attended Harry Wheeler in a professional way stated on the witness stand that the latter told him there had been a will but that he Harry had grown tired of seeing it around and destroyed it Accompanying the rather remarkable confession was the statement that the property was all left to Mrs Wheeler anyway and the existence of a will didn't matter

Dr Townsend of Detroit who had become well acquainted with the family and especially with Mr Wheeler testified that in a conversation with the latter some time before his death Mr Wheeler showed him a paper purporting to be a will and ... that he ... left everything to ... Mr Wheeler

Mr Eisle ... one of the old and trusted ... testified to practically the same thing Mr Wheeler having told him that Harry was not capable of taking care of the property and that ... all left to his wife

Court adjourned at five o'clock yesterday evening and this morning several other witnesses were examined ... the first being Frank Horner who ... several ... prior to Mr Wheeler's death Mr Horner told the circumstances surrounding the sudden demise of Mr Wheeler and of his finding Harry in an intoxicated condition at the Brunswick hotel A few days later Harry informed those at the store that the business would be conducted without change by his mother and mentioned to Mr Horner the existence of a will which left her all the property

Several of the older residents of Lima including Col I T Moore and T T Mitchell testified that Mr Wheeler was a careful and conservative business man and that his mind was perfectly sound up to the time of his death

Mr Kirby cashier of the Ohio National bank told of the visit of Mrs Wheeler and her son Harry to the vault where the private box of Mr Wheeler was opened and the contents including some government bonds and bank stock was turned over to the family They were there for the purpose of finding the will but no such paper was discovered

With this testimony before the court Judge Miller took the case under advisement without arguing on either side

Turning the Tables

Mollie M Higgins seeks to recover the sum of $1 000 from Walter P Bloom the action being the outgrowth of a proceeding in Justice Reilly's court last August when a lot of household goods owned by Mrs Higgs were attached to secure a judgment for $8 claimed to be due on a lumber bill

Mrs Higgs says the goods were taken possession of while the family were in Buffalo and were kept from August 9 until August 19 during which time the family was compelled to put up at a hotel The plaintiff's husband came to Lima and brought an action in replevin for the goods the court holding that they were free from execution Having won her case Mrs Higgs now wants $1 000 to make good the expense to which she was put Prophet & Eastman prepared the petition

Off to the Works

Deputy sheriff Freet escorted Scott Roach to the Dayton work house today to serve the time and work out the costs assessed by Mayor Rogers To be on the safe side Roach was decorated with a lovely pair of steel bracelets

In the Village of Troy.

When court goes into session at Troy the court house bell is rung and the attorneys drop their ping pong rackets and hurry off to the temple of justice with a bunch of Blackstones under their arms. Like the village school master, the judge no doubt has some to deal with who don't care whether school keeps or not.

CHILD

Came to Lima to Visit Her Relatives

But Found No One at the Train to Meet Her—Mother is in Sandusky.

Officer Frank Angier brought a little tot, six years of age to the police station this morning, who gave the name of Merril Driver and said she came from Vermillion, O , to visit her aunt, Mrs. Minnie Driver. She was to have been met at the depot but no one was there and all efforts so far to locate the relatives have been unsuccessful.

The child said she had gone to Sandusky with her mother, who remained there for a visit, sending the child to Lima, as had previously been arranged. The Mrs. Driver referred to is not a resident of Lima but is said by the girl to be visiting J. O. Wilkinson, a dealer in rugs. F T. Wickersham, of west North street, took the little girl home and will keep her until the relatives can be found.

STABLE

Room Secured for a String of Horses

That Will be Entered in the Running Races.

Twenty-five Speedy Jumpers Will Come from Toledo to Enter the Events at the Allen County Fair.

Stable room for twenty five horses from Toledo

That in brief was the demand made upon Secretary Bowersock of the fair board who has been on the jump during the past few days taking care of rush orders and meeting emergencies that always arise at the last moment The Toledo horses are all runners and with such a string in prospect some of the warmest kind of racing can be depended upon

As to the harness performers every race is filled and the speed committee is rejoicing over the result of their endeavors to make the racing program one of the most attractive features

Every department at the fair including stock agricultural mercantile and art exhibits will all be on a bigger and more elaborate scale than ever before and the prospects for a most successful week were never more promising

Owing to the number of rumors responding to the purses the speed ring committee today decided to add two extra events one on Wednesday and one on Thursday The novelty run advertised for Friday will also be changed to give a part of the purse to the horse leading at the quarter post Another change was determined upon the 2 18 trot being the attraction for Wednesday instead of the 2 40 trot which will take place on Thursday

Some special values in children's Long Coats at $2.75, $3 75 and $4.25 at Feltz's.

BATTLE

Was Carried Into Police Court.

Women Mixed Up in an Assault Case

Appeared Before the Mayor With a Dozen Witnesses and an Attorney to Carry on the War.

It is not the usual thing to call in a referee after the scrap is over and the defeated opponent has taken the count, but Mayor Rogers officiated this morning in a case involving two women who became involved in a neighborhood quarrel and at four o'clock this afternoon attorneys Del Armstrong and Fred Becker will spar for a few legal points in order to assist his honor in arriving at a decision.

The belligerents were Mrs. Iona Wise and Miss Addie Joseph, the latter having filed a complaint against the Wise woman who used a pair of scissors for a weapon and jabbed Miss Joseph in the head There were a dozen witnesses more or less involved in the case, who testified as to the cause and provocation and there seems to have been several passages of arms before the main fight came off. The language used was far from choice and furnished the spectators with a generous idea of the character of the principals.

COLORED

Charlie Galloway, a young colored man, who is charged with having stolen a pair of rubber boots from Bowers & Albright's barn, was bound over to the grand jury this morning sum of $50. His father furnished the amount and Galloway gained his liberty, at least temporarily.

PE-RU-NA IS THE

WOMAN'S BEST FRIEND,

So Says Mrs. Rose, of New York City, And Tens of Thousands of Other Women.

Mrs. Jennie Rose, 362 W. Twenty-Second Street, New York City, writes:
The Peruna Medicine Co., Columbus, O.:

Gentlemen: "Peruna is a blessing to suffering women. I suffered with female trouble since I began menstruation, and every month I suffered two and three days of untold agony, and had to arrange my work and duties so as to be in bed every month for two days at least.

"My brother was cured of Bright's Disease from the use of Peruna and so I determined to try it for my trouble.

"Imagine my great joy when I found that it relieved me quite a bit the first month and I was entirely without pain during that period after having used Peruna only four months.

"This is about two years ago and all during that time I have suffered no pain. I can now come and go as I like and consider Peruna woman's best friend and wish that every suffering woman might know that she can find relief through the use of this medicine."

Truly yours,

MRS. JENNIE ROSE.

Mrs. Ellen Thompson, Battle Town, Ky., writes:

"When I wrote you for advice I was very bad off. When I received your letter I commenced using Peruna and it did just what you said it would. I have had a cough for about fifteen years and your medicine has done me more good than anything I have ever used. I am so thankful to you for your advice to me."—Mrs. Ellen Thompson.

Mrs. James Eighmey, Grape, Mich., writes:

"I have been troubled with pain before and during my monthlies ever since I was seventeen. I was also troubled with other female weakness. I took your treatment, and am now well, and thank you for your kind advice.'—Mrs. James Eighmey.

Mrs. John Meyers, Erhart, O., writes:

"I have been a sufferer from chronic catarrh for years and have thereby lost the sense of smell entirely. I had four of the best physicians in this vicinity without receiving any benefit whatever.

"Now I am once more a well woman. I find Peruna to be the best medicine in the world as it has done me more good than my physician could have done for me. My friends say I look ten years younger. I tell them that Peruna did it. I can't thank you enough for your free advice."—Mrs. John Meyers.

Mrs. Ida Baker, Portsmouth, O., writes:

"I am glad to say that I am well. I have taken Peruna and feel better than I have for ten years; have gained twelve pounds and am still gaining. When I wrote to you for advice I had given up all hope of being well again, and I feel that it has saved my life."—Mrs. Ida Baker.

Alice Scott, of Franklin, Ky , in a letter to Dr. Hartman, says:

"For seven long years I had been a constant sufferer from catarrh of the pelvic organs which resulted in displacement of the uterus. I wrote you telling you all my complaints from the beginning to the present, made happy and much encouraged every time by your kind and fatherly letters of advice and instruction. I am now a strong woman weighing 148 pounds."—Alice Scott.

If you do not derive prompt and satisfactory results from the use of Peruna, write at once to Dr. Hartman, giving a full statement of your case and he will be pleased to give you his valuable advice gratis.

Address Dr. Hartman, President of The Hartman Sanitarium, Columbus, Ohio.

MISS MONIE BOWEY,

No. 38 Perry Street. DETROIT, MICHIGAN.

Miss Monie Bowey.

A couple of winters ago I slipped on a frozen sidewalk and fell flat on my back. On being examined I found that I had sustained internal injuries which laid me up for more than two months. After that I noticed that I had pains in the back and groin which I never had before. I doctored and doctored for several months but as the pains increased instead of growing better I decided that I was not having the right treatment. Reading in the papers of the wonderful cures performed by Wine of Cardui I wrote to one of the parties and received a very satisfactory reply and I immediately sent for some. In a very short time I felt generally better and after seven weeks faithful use I was once more well and strong. I have never had a sick hour since and I daily bless your splendid medicine.

MONIE BOWEY.

WINE OF CARDUI is one medicine that should always be kept on hand in every home for immediate use when female weakness first makes its appearance. Miss Bowey's painful and dangerous accident would not have resulted so seriously had she taken Wine of Cardui promptly Wine of Cardui makes women more womanly by curing their weakness and making them stronger. Wine of Cardui cured Miss Bowey. As a medicine for all women in every trying period of their lives can you think of a better medicine for yourself, your sister, your daughter or your mother? If your daughter, mother, sister or friend is sick and in need of relief, your duty is equally great to them. Many women, now well, owe their lives to friends who brought them Wine of Cardui.

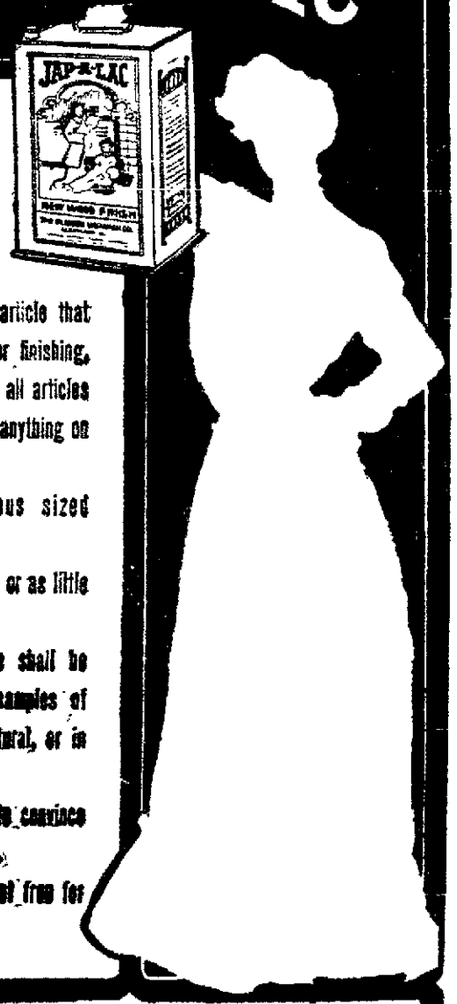

Wine of Cardui is adapted to women at any age in any walk of life. For the working woman it gives her strength for her tasks and better treatment than a doctor for very small cost.

Your druggist will sell you a $1.00 bottle of Wine of Cardui. Secure the medicine today. Take it in the privacy of your home. Relief will come to you as surely as you take it

SICK HEADACHE

A symptom, not a disease. When the stomach becomes incapacitated by disease—is unable to properly mix and assimilate food—it morally effects the brain and brings on the much feared attack of sick-headache. How useless it is to try to cure the headache until the stomach is in a normal and healthy condition. But as soon as this is accomplished, see how quickly the headache disappears. The medicine to use is TABER'S PEPSIN COMPOUND; it acts directly on the stomach, and quickly cures all dyspepsia evils. Sold by all druggists, or sent prepaid by us, 50c and $1.00. EIGHTY ARE DEAD

Cry of Fire Causes a Fearful Stampede in Church.

HUNDREDS TRAMPLED UPON.

Men, Women and Children Fought Furiously For Their Lives.

AWFUL SCENE DEFIED DESCRIPTION.

Fight Between Two Delegates Abruptly and Tragically Terminates the National Convention of the Negro Baptists — Booker Washington and Other Prominent Colored Workers Unwilling Witnesses to the Frightful Catastrophe—Story of the Distressing Affair.

Birmingham, Ala., Sept 20.—Nearly 80 persons were killed and as many more injured Friday night in a terrible stampede in the Shiloh Negro Baptist church. The disaster occurred about 9 o'clock, just as Booker T. Washington had concluded his address to the national convention of Negro Baptists, and for hours the scenes around the church fairly beggared description. The church is by far the largest house of worship for negroes in Birmingham, and the pastor says there were at least 2,000 persons in the edifice when the stampede began. Instructions had been issued to allow no more to enter, but the negroes forced their way inside the building and were standing in every aisle, even the entrance to the church being literally packed.

Just as Booker Washington concluded his address Judge Billou, a negro lawyer from Baltimore, engaged in an altercation with the choir leader concerning an occupied seat, and it is said

A Blow Was Struck.

Some one in the choir cried, "They're fighting!" Mistaking the word "fighting" for "fire," the congregation rose en masse and started for the door. The minister quickly mounted the rostrum and admonished the people to keep quiet. He repeated the word "quiet" several times, and motioned to his hearers to be seated. Again the excited congregation mistook the word "quiet" for "fire" and renewed the struggle to reach the door. Men and women crawled over benches, fought their way into the aisles, and those who had fallen were trampled upon like cattle. The minister tried again and again to stop the stampede, but no power on earth could stay the struggling.

Fighting Mass of Humanity.

The screams of women and children added to the horror of the scene, and through mere fright many persons fainted, and as they fell to the floor were crushed to death.

The level of the floor is about 15 feet from the ground and long steps lead to the sidewalk from the lobby just outside the main auditorium. Brick walls extend on each side of these steps for six or seven feet, and this proved a veritable deathtrap. Negroes who had reached the top of the steps were pushed violently forward, and many fell. Before they could move others fell upon them, and in 15 minutes persons were piled upon each other to a height of 10 feet. This wall of struggling humanity blocked the entrance, and the weight of 1,500 persons was pushed against it. More than 20 persons lying on the steps underneath the heap of bodies

Died From Suffocation.

Two white men who were in the rear of the church when the rush began escaped, and, realizing the seriousness of the situation, rushed to a corner near by and turned in a fire alarm. The department came quickly and the arrival of the wagons served to scatter the crowd which had gathered around the front of the church. A squad of police also hastened to the church, and, with the firemen, finally succeeded in releasing the negroes from their pinioned positions in the entrance. The dead bodies were quickly removed, and the crowd inside, finding an outlet, came pouring out. Scores of them lost their footing and rolled down the long steps to the pavement, sustaining broken limbs and internal injuries.

Booker Washington Talks.

Principal Booker T. Washington, when seen after the accident, said:

"I had just finished delivering my lecture on 'Industry' and the singing had commenced, when some woman back of me was heard to scream. Some members of the choir yelled 'quiet,' which the gallery understood to be 'fire.' This was repeated and started the stampede. I found on investigation that a Birmingham man had stepped on the toes of a delegate from Baltimore named Ballou. Ballou resented it and made a motion as if to draw a gun. This caused the woman to scream.

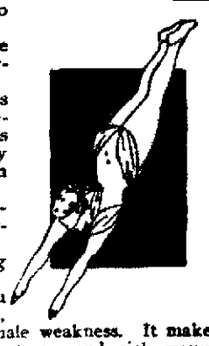

"There was little excitement in the center and front of the church. The rear of the church was congested, and some of the men tried to walk out on the heads of the crowd. At the time of the alarm there were probably 3,000 people in the church, and fully that number without. The crowd on the side walk surged in, and this, to a measure, accounted for the large loss of life. The majority of those killed were smothered to death, very few having bones broken.

"When I saw that a stampede was imminent I started the choir singing, and part of the audience joined them. I remained until the awful excitement had passed. One good sister, whose name I did not learn, caught me firmly by the waist and held me throughout the excitement, saying 'keep still.' I am unable to say positively, but there is a probability that the convention will adjourn out of respect to the dead. The session would have closed next Monday night. So far as is known about 10 delegates were among those killed, two from Texas and two from New Orleans being among that number."

In an hour the church had been practically cleared, and the sight which greeted the eyes of those who had come to aid the injured was sickening. Down the aisles and along the outside of the pews the dead bodies of men and women were strewn, and the cries of the maimed and crippled were heartrending. In a few minutes the work of removing the bodies was begun.

A WOMAN'S RISK

As a trapeze performer is greater than a man's. She must have a man's courage and a man's muscle to succeed. But she must also work under conditions of which a man knows nothing. Many an accident to women acrobats must be attributed to the sudden weakness to which all women are subject at certain times.

Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription heals the womanly diseases which cause weakness. It establishes regularity, dries weakening drains, heals inflammation and ulceration, and cures female weakness. It makes weak women strong and sick women well.

"With pleasure I write to-day in praise of Dr. Pierce and his medicines," says Mrs. Mary Conway, of Appleton, Lawrence Co., Tenn. "Was troubled with female disease, the back of my head hurt me so I could not lie in bed and I would have to sit up, and then I would have such pains from my waist down I could scarcely raise up. My feet and hands would feel almost like ice. Since taking Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription I can sleep well all night. Could hardly drag around before I took your medicine, and now can do my housework and help my husband in the field. Words cannot express the thanks I owe to Dr. Pierce."

Weak and sick women are invited to consult Dr. Pierce, by letter, free. All correspondence is held as strictly private and sacredly confidential. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

Dr. Pierce's Common Sense Medical Adviser, containing more than a thousand large pages, is sent free on receipt of stamps to pay expense of mailing only. Send 31 one-cent stamps for the cloth-bound volume, or only 21 stamps for the book in paper covers. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

M'GOVERN-CORBETT.

Southern Athletic Club Declares the Bout Off.

Louisville, Sept. 20.—Robert C Gray, manager of the Southern club declared the 20 round contest between Terry McGovern and Young Corbett scheduled for next Monday night, off as far as his club was concerned. Mr Gray announced that the $30,000 worth of tickets which have been sold for the bout will be redeemed at any bank. The Southern Athletic club is out about $5,000, including the forfeit of $2,500 put up to insure the bringing off of the contest.

Injunction Sustained.

Frankfort, Ky., Sept 20.—The injunction granted Thursday by Judge Emmett Field of the Jefferson circuit court restraining the Southern Athletic club and others from pulling off the McGovern-Corbett contest for the featherweight championship of the world at Louisville Monday evening of next week has been sustained by Associate Judge James D. White of the court of appeals and the contest will not be held in Kentucky. A majority of the court expressed the opinion that the glove contest which was enjoined in the lower court is a prize-fight, and that it is immaterial whether the purse was to be evenly divided.

Only One Answer.

Washington, Sept. 20.—So far only one answer to the state department's identical note concerning the Roumanian Jews has come to hand. This was from Great Britain, and consisted of a brief acknowledgment with a promise to look into the subject matter, which promise appears to have been kept by the prompt issue of an invitation by Great Britain to Germany to open negotiations on the subject. It is presumed that the other nations addressed will return their acknowledgments shortly.

Premature Explosion of Blast.

El Paso, Tex., Sept 20.—Jesus Hernandez was killed, two other Mexicans fatally injured, and a fourth severely hurt in a premature explosion of a blast in a construction camp near here on the El Paso Southern railway, now building. Others had to be dug out of the debris to prevent their smothering to death.

To Install Wireless Telegraph.

Paris, Sept 20.—The French government has decided to install a wireless telegraph system in the islands of Martinique and Guadeloupe owing to the frequent interruptions of the cable service there. Two telegraph experts sail from Bordeaux Sept. 26 with the apparatus.

'Lovers' Lane,' the famous comedy by Clyde Fitch is the attraction at the Faurot opera house this afternoon and evening. It is presented by William A Brady who finds it as popular and profitable as his other bonanza Way Down East. Lovers Lane is a play of the Massachusetts small town not of the farm yard and hay field and it is in scoring the sham of Phariseeism and narrow insular prejudice that

THE PURITY BRIGADE.

Clyde Fitch has found opportunity to wield his sharp and slashing blade of satire. It is from all accounts a kaleidoscopic play [illegible] ever shifting life color comedy and sentiment. The corner stone of its popularity seems to be the [illegible] thorough [illegible] in [illegible]. An incident of the [illegible] is the introduction of a large number of children [illegible] songs [illegible] and other [illegible]

The Carner Stock company will be the attraction at the Faurot opera house all next week excepting Thursday evening with a family matinee at [illegible] Saturday. The clever comedienne Miss Cora Wilmott and the versatile leading man Mr Fredric Herzog always great favorites head the cast and in the coming plays Count of [illegible] W[illegible] they portray parts exactly suited to their ability and in which they have both scored decided hits. It will be the first production here of this interesting play at popular prices. The piece differs from Sherlock Holmes and other detective plays as it seeks to present a heart holding story to command the sympathy of all theatre going people. The costumes and scenic effects are beautiful. Vaudeville is introduced between the acts and the musical programme of the Premium Orchestra will add much to the pleasure of lovers of fine music.

Miss Henrietta Crosman who will appear at the Faurot opera house next Thursday night in The Sword of the King is the daughter of an army officer and her girlhood was passed in garrisons for the most part on the frontier. Like most army girls she is a skillful horsewoman is expert with gun or revolver and is a pastmaster in the art of swordmanship as many confident young graduates fresh from West Point have found to their confusion in crossing foils with her. Not these gallant warriors alone but other vain glorious blades have been humbled by this same gentle adversary. Of these the most recent is Frederick C Bertrand. Mr Bertrand is an actor and member of Miss Crosman's company. He is also a professional foilsman and an instructor in fencing. In "The Sword of the King," Miss Crosman disguises herself as a boy in one act and fights a duel with swords. When the company was assembled at Wallack's theatre in New York August 14th, for the first reading of the play, Mr. Bertrand stepped up to Miss Crosman and courteously offered to coach her for the fencing scene. Miss Crosman gravely accepted his offer with a proper show of gratitude. A few mornings later at rehearsal a pair of foils and masks were produced and the two faced each other for the first lesson. Expectant onlookers were the several members of Miss Crosman's company who had been with her in former seasons and knew some thing of her talent with foils. A few passes and Mr Bertrand's sword flew from his hands. Pardon me cried Miss Crosman in apparent distress for a mistake. It was my awkwardness. Again the blades struck sparks once more Mr Bertrand was disarmed, a second time Miss Crosman apologized. The actor looked at her curiously took a firmer grip of his recovered weapon and went at it a third time. He had discovered by this that he was dealing with no novice but his astonishment was so manifest when his blade was again beaten down that all the company burst into a laugh. This time he cut short her attempted apology recognizing that he had been tricked but entering into the spirit of [illegible] amusement. And every morning thereafter while the company was in New York Miss Crosman and Mr Bertrand had their half hour with foils.

Miss Henrietta Crosman will be seen at the Faurot opera house next Thursday night in the dramatic [illegible] of the year. The play in which this talented artist has achieved triumphs this season [illegible] her tor[illegible] [illegible] is a story of 1685 [illegible] rich in [illegible] when men [illegible] dared and did much. The Sw[ord of the King] [illegible] by [illegible] Ronald Mac Donald the author [illegible] [illegible] who [illegible] the su[illegible] interest [illegible] Miss Crosman has [illegible] [illegible]

King that affords a greater scope for her wide range of talents than any player in which she heretofore has appeared. She is Philippa daughter of the lord mayor. Twice she disguises herself as a boy and meets a foeman on the field of honor. So there is that original flash of comedy which is all Miss Crosman's own and there is also love and pity and interest and play of emotion which reveals the great breadth of her power.

The Republicans of Allen county held a convention in the assembly room at the court house today and nominated the weakest ticket that party has placed in the field in Allen county since it didn't nominate any.

The convention was called to order at 10.35 by Sam Vertner, chairman of the Republican county central committee. He said it was his duty to call the convention to order and to name the temporary organization. Before naming the temporary chairman and secretaries however, he apologized for the selections he was going to make, say he he would make them with the hope of eliminating some of the bitterness existing between the different factions of the party. He tried to intercept any kicking on his selections by saying that he wanted his appointments received in the same spirit in which they were made. He then named S. S. Wheeler for temporary chairman and Bert Campbell and John Marsh for temporary secretaries.

Sam's speech and the bi factional complexion of the temporary organization made the atmosphere so oppressive that D. Rudy demanded that the windows be opened. This relieved the embarrassing spell that had fallen over the convention and then chairman Wheeler tried to inject a little enthusiasm, prejudice into the delegates by sending up a few oratorical sky rockets.

M. J. Sanford moved that the temporary organization be made permanent and Art Morris seconded it. Four or five men voted yes and Sanford declared the motion carried.

Chairman Wheeler called for the selection of committees and Art Morris moved to dispense with the usual committee on resolutions, M. J. Sanford seconded Morris' motion.

A motion that the various delegations select members of a committee on credentials and members of a committee on rules and order of business was made and Don Henderson asked if the delegations "Hadn't better get together."

"You can't select these members of the committees unless you do get together," replied the chair.

M. J. Sanford suggested that the roll of townships, wards and precincts be called and that the chairman designate where they should "get together" but the sound of his voice was drowned by the general confusion that attended the strenuous scramble made by the delegates to beat each other to it and get on the committees. Every delegate carried an armload of fighting rods.

After fifteen minutes of confusion the convention was again commanded to settle down and the following committees were selected:

After the committees had been named Don Henderson moved that the convention take a recess until 1 o'clock. The chair announced that the committee on credentials would meet in the corridor in the basement of the court house and that the committee on rules and order of business would meet in the first room south of the assembly room. He then called for a vote on the motion for recess till 1 o'clock and there were louder nays than yeas heard in response. The chair then called for a rising vote and when the nays stood up M. J. Sanford yelled for the chairman to look his way where several delegates were standing. The chair however declared the motion to adjourn carried. This was first blood for Boss Hall. The anti Hall crowd did not want an adjournment because they were afraid Hall would whip some of the delegates, who had promised to support Tom Edwards for the clerkship nomination, into line for his candidate, W. K. Boone. They had guessed Hall right too for as soon as the adjournment was taken the Hall men could be seen on almost every street corner and in other places, buttonholing the delegates.

"How are you betting on the county clerk nomination?" an anti-Hall man was asked during the preliminary bout this morning.

"I'll bet twenty to one that the Republican nominee of this convention is defeated by at least nine hundred votes," was the prompt reply. "That's confidential of course but it is the real situation and there's no use beating around the bush about it. We can never elect a Republican in Allen county as long as we've got to be dictated to by such people as are telling us where to head in now."

The convention was again called to order at 1.10 o'clock this afternoon and the chair called for the reports of the committees. The report of the committee on rules and order of business was first reported by P. A. Kahle and it was adopted. The committee on credentials was requested to report and Dr. A. S. Rudy reported that the committee had found no contests.

The chair ordered the roll of townships, wards and precincts called for the presentation of the names of candidates for the nomination for county clerk. Bert Campbell called the roll without a response until he reached Lima, Sixth ward, precinct A, when Dr. A. S. Rudy, of the Fifth ward nominated W. K. Boone, whom he said was a man who could meet all people "on the square" and look them in the face. There was a burst of applause from the Sixth ward delegation, when the doctor finished his speech. Clark Hoyt, of the Sixth ward, seconded the nomination of Mr. Boone.

When the Seventh ward, A, was called Don Henderson, a leader of the Foraker element nominated Tom Edwards, whereupon Edwards' friends applauded.

When the roll call reached Monroe township, Jim Begg presented the name of A. L. Belch, of that township. During his remarks he tried to square Belch with the Hall crowd by saying that Belch was above the game of petty factional partisanship. This apology was made because the Hall crowd had branded Belch as a traitor when he as chairman of the county committee placed Bert Campbell, a Foraker, in the office as chairman of the last Republican county convention. Belch's nomination was seconded by George Quail.

No further nominations being made the chair ordered the ballot prepared and then the fun commenced. Hall tried to whip a number of his former proteges into line and some of them bucked like Texas broncos standing pat for either Edwards or Belch.

When the scrappers were finally restored to something like halfway decent order the roll was called for the first ballot and it resulted as follows:

	Boone.	Belch.	Edwards.

Edwards Nominated.

There still being no nomination made the 3rd ballot was ordered and it was soon seen that Belch's friends had combined with Edwards to defeat Col. Boone. Edwards was given the nomination on the ballot receiving 102 9-11 votes while Boone received 69 and Belch, 3.

Col. Boone moved to make the nomination of Edwards unanimous when he saw that the Seventh ward man had won. There were a few yeas heard on the motion in the commotion and the chair declared the opposition could get out through the window.

BOONE REFUSED

To Accept a Nomination on the Ticket With Edwards.

Tom Edwards made a few remarks, thanking the delegates who had supported him and the chair then called for nominations for county auditor. M. J. Sanford jumped up and tried to give Colonel Boone a consolation prize by nominating him as the candidate for county auditor.

Col. Boone was on his feet like a shot and gained the recognition of the chair before Art Morris' second could be heard. He declared he could not afford to accept second place on the ticket and refused positively to accept the booby prize.

Col. Boone's refusal was so strenuously positive that Sanford backed up and apologized by saying that he had not thought to confer with Col Boone before offering him a consolation prize. He was bound to name the candidate for another however and presented the name of Jacob Moser, who was not present to decline. There was no one present who wanted the nomination and Moser's nomination was made by acclamation.

For Recorder.

For the nomination for county recorder the name of Joseph Daller was presented by P. A. Kahle. Daller was considered too rank a Forakerite to be allowed to stick his head above water and Art Morris, on behalf of the Boss Hall crowd presented the name of Al Metheany who came into Hall's camp after the latter had forced him off of the city ticket last spring. Metheany secured the nomination, the vote being as follows.

Metheany, 125
Daller, 66.

The chair declared Metheany nominated and there wasn't even the slightest ripple of enthusiasm and no one moved to make the nomination unanimous, and after a painful lapse chairman Wheeler called for nominations of candidates for probate judge.

Boss Hall—"I nominate M. J. Sanford."

Sanford—"I decline positively."

Boss Hall—"I second the motion."

Art Morris—"I nominate George Quail."

Somebody nominated Don Henderson and the latter declared he wouldn't run. Quail wasn't in the convention and a motion to nominate him by acclamation was carried.

M. J. Sanford was bound to remain in the game and when nominations for prosecuting attorney were called for he jumped up and nominated Otis Lippencott. Lippencott couldn't be found to decline so he was put on the slate in default of protest.

GEORGE QUAIL

And Miner Atmur Both Refused to Accept a Nomination.

George Quail came in and said he understood the convention had nominated him for probate judge during his absence from the room. He said he couldn't accept the nomination and positively refused to be the candidate on the ticket headed by Edwards. Some one jumped up and nominated M. A. Atmur, whereupon Art Morris declared he had word from Mr. Atmur that he would not under any circumstances accept the nomination. No one could be found to put in the place on the ticket so the place was left for the executive committee to draft a candidate for.

JACOB MOSER

Refuses to Accept the Nomination For County Auditor.

While the convention was trying to nominate a candidate for county commissioner a messenger boy entered the room and handed chairman Wheeler a note. He read it and announced to the convention that Jacob Moser had sent word that he would not accept the nomination for county auditor. Referred to the executive committee.

County Commissioner.

There were three candidates for the nomination for county commissioner, R. T. Sutton, of Amanda township; W. C. Baxter, of Marion township and S. W. Wright, of Auglaize township. Two ballots were taken resulting as follows; Wright being nominated:

First Ballot.
Sutton, 46.
Baxter, 50.
Wright, 90 8-9.
Second Ballot.
Sutton, 26.
Baxter, 44.
Wright, 123.

Infirmary Director.

R. F. Hullabarger, of Auglaize township, was named for Infirmary Director by acclamation, after which the convention adjourned.

COAL DEALERS

In Yorkers Find Competition Beyond Atlantic.

Yonkers, N. Y., Sept. 20.—The board of education of this city, through its president, Chas. Philip Eastman, a New York lawyer, has decided to import enough coal from Wales to heat the schools in the winter. The local coal dealers refuse to put in bids for supplying the schools. It is said that there is not enough coal in the city to heat the schools one month.

BIBLE TEXTS

Thought to Have Had Effect on Murderer's Mind.

New York, Sept. 20.—Police now believe that Hooper Young killed Mrs. Politzer in a moment of perverted religious frenzy. In his room were found a number of slips of paper containing bible texts and one paper, labeled, "Blood Atonement." His trunk was found this morning at the Polk street depot, Chicago, but though the police searched carefully there was no trace of Young.
